EDITED BY GIUSEPPE DE PALO, ADR CENTER, MEMBER OF JAMS INTERNATIONAL, ROME, AND MARY B. TREVOR, HAMLIN UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF LAW, ST. PAUL

- Guides the reader through important Mediation Directive legislation, with commentary written by practicing experts and edited by the President of ADR Center and an experienced Professor at Hamline University School of Law
- Aids comparative understanding and cross-border practice with country-by-country coverage of 27 European countries
- Includes English translations of each country's mediation laws and a Comparative Table of mediation laws which collectively reveal significant variations in the Directives implementation
- Answers the urgent demand for reliable and current information for practitioners, mediators, businesses, mediation service providers (both within and outside the EU), businesses providing mediation training, educators and academics, and policymakers.
- Foreword by Viviane Reding, Vice President of the European Commission
